Proposed FLSA Collective*

Hector Reyes, on behalf of himself and all other persons similarly situated,

Plaintiff,

- vs. -

317 Restaurant LLC d/b/a Bistecca Florentina, and Luciano Marchignoli, Defendants.

DOCKET NO. 17-cv-74

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff Hector Reyes, by and through his undersigned attorneys, for his complaint against Defendants 317 Restaurant LLC d/b/a Bistecca Florentina and Luciano Marchignoli, alleges as follows, on behalf of himself and on behalf of all other persons similarly situated:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. Plaintiff Hector Reyes alleges on behalf of himself and on behalf of other similarly situated current and former employees of Defendants 317 Restaurant LLC d/b/a Bistecca, and Luciano Marchignoli, who elect to opt into this action pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act (“FLSA”), 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), that they are entitled to: (i) compensation for wages paid at less than the statutory minimum wage; (ii) unpaid wages from Defendants for overtime work for which they did not receive overtime premium pay as required by law; and (iii) liquidated damages pursuant to the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. §§ 201 et seq., because Defendants' violations lacked a good faith basis.

2. Plaintiff further complains that he is entitled to (i) compensation for wages paid at less than the statutory New York minimum wage; (ii) back wages for overtime work for which Defendants willfully failed to pay overtime premium pay as required by the New York Labor Law §§ 650 et seq. and the supporting New York State Department of Labor regulations; (iii) compensation for Defendants' violations of the "spread of hours" requirements of New York Labor Law; (iv) compensation for Defendants' violation of the Wage Theft Prevention Act; and (v) liquidated damages pursuant to New York Labor Law for these violations.

THE PARTIES

3. Plaintiff is an adult individual residing in Bronx, New York.

4. Plaintiff consents in writing to be a party to this action pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b); his written consent is attached hereto and incorporated by reference.

5. Upon information and belief, Defendant 317 Restaurant LLC is a New York corporation with a principal place of business at 313 West 46th Street, New York, New York 10036.

6. At all relevant times, Defendant 317 Restaurant LLC has been, and continues to be, an employer engaged in interstate commerce and/or the production of goods for commerce within the meaning of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. §§ 206(a) and 207(a).

7. Upon information and belief, at all relevant times, Defendant 317 Restaurant LLC has had gross revenues in excess of $500,000.00.

8. Upon information and belief, at all relevant times herein, Defendant 317 Restaurant LLC has used goods and materials produced in interstate commerce, and has employed individuals who handled such goods and materials.

9. Upon information and belief, at all relevant times, Defendant 317 Restaurant LLC has constituted an “enterprise” as defined in the FLSA.

10. Upon information and belief, Defendant Marchignoli is an owner or part owner and principal of 317 Restaurant LLC; he has the power to hire and fire employees, set wages and schedules, and maintain their records.

11. Defendant Marchignoli was involved in the day-to-day operations of 317 Restaurant LLC and played an active role in managing the business.

12. Defendants constituted “employers” of Plaintiff as that term is used in the Fair Labor Standards Act and New York Labor Law.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

13. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1337 and supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff’s state law claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1337. In addition, the Court has jurisdiction over Plaintiff’s claims under the FLSA pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

14. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 because Defendants’ business is located in this district.

COLLECTIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

15. Pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 207, Plaintiff seeks to prosecute his FLSA claims as a collective action on behalf of all persons who are or were formerly employed by Defendants in the United States at any time since December 28, 2013, to the entry of judgment in this case (the “Collective Action Period”), who were non-exempt employees within the meaning of the FLSA, and who were not paid overtime compensation at rates not less than one-and-one-half times the regular rate of pay for hours worked in excess of forty hours per workweek (the “Collective Action Members”).

16. The Collective Action Members are similarly situated to Plaintiff in that they were employed by Defendants as non-exempt restaurant workers, and were denied payment of the proper minimum wage and premium overtime pay for some of their hours worked beyond forty hours in a week.

17. They are further similarly situated in that Defendants had a policy and practice of knowingly and willfully refusing to pay them at the correct minimum wage and the proper overtime premium.

18. The exact number of such individuals is presently unknown, but is known by Defendants and can be ascertained through appropriate discovery.

FACTS

19. At all relevant times herein, Defendants owned and operated a restaurant in New York.

20. Plaintiff was employed by Defendants from approximately April 2010 through March 2016.

21. Plaintiff was primarily employed as a dishwasher; however, he was also responsible for receiving deliveries, cleaning floors and windows, removing garbage, and clearing the sidewalk when it snowed.

22. Plaintiff's work was performed in the normal course of Defendants' business and was integrated into the business of Defendants, and did not involve executive or administrative responsibilities.

23. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff was an employee engaged in commerce and/or in the production of goods for commerce, as defined in the FLSA and its implementing regulations.

24. Plaintiff's regular schedule was six days per week; he worked every day of the week except Tuesdays.

25. Plaintiff worked roughly nine hours per day on Sundays, Mondays, Wednesdays and Thursdays. He started work at 4:00 P.M. and ended at 1:00 A.M.

26. Plaintiff worked roughly ten hours per day on Fridays and Saturdays. He started work at 4:00 P.M. and ended at 2:00 A.M.

27. As a result, Plaintiff worked roughly 56 hours per week each week of his employment with Defendants.

28. Defendants did not provide a time clock, sign in sheet, or any other method for employees to track their time worked.

29. Plaintiff was paid by check throughout his employment.

30. Plaintiff was paid $425 per week.

31. As a result, his effective rate of pay was occasionally below the statutory minimum wages in effect at relevant times.

32. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff an amount at least equal to the New York state minimum wages in effect during the time from 2014 until the end of his employment was willful, and lacked a good faith basis.

33. In addition, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff an overtime “bonus” for 8 of the 16 hours he worked beyond 40 hours in a workweek, in violation of the FLSA, the New York Labor Law, and the supporting New York State Department of Labor regulations.

34. Defendants’ failure to pay Plaintiff the overtime bonus for some of his overtime hours worked was willful, and lacked a good faith basis.

35. Throughout his employment, Plaintiff worked two shifts per week that lasted ten hours from start to finish, yet Defendants willfully failed to pay him one additional hour’s pay at the minimum wage for each such day he worked shifts lasting ten hours, in violation of the New York Labor Law and the supporting New York State Department of Labor regulations.

36. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff with written notices providing the information required by the Wage Theft Prevention Act – including, inter alia, Defendants’ contact information, Plaintiff’s regular and overtime rates, and intended allowances claimed – and failed to obtain Plaintiff’s signature acknowledging the same, upon his hiring or at any time thereafter, in violation of the Wage Theft Prevention Act in effect at the time.

37. The paystubs that Defendants provided Plaintiff each week did not conform to the specific requirements of the Wage Theft Prevention Act.

38. Upon information and belief, throughout the period of Plaintiff’s employment, both before that time (throughout the Collective Action Period) and continuing until today, Defendants have likewise employed other individuals like Plaintiff (the Collective Action Members) in positions at Defendants’ restaurant that required little skill, no capital investment, and with duties and responsibilities that did not include any managerial responsibilities or the exercise of independent judgment.

39. Upon information and belief, these other individuals have worked in excess of forty hours per week, yet Defendants have likewise failed to pay them overtime compensation of one-and-one-half times their regular hourly rate in violation of the FLSA and the New York Labor Law.

40. Upon information and belief, these other individuals were not provided with required wage notices or accurate weekly wage statements as specified in New York Labor Law §§ 195.1, 195.3, and the Wage Theft Prevention Act.

41. Upon information and belief, while Defendants employed Plaintiff and the Collective Action members, and through all relevant time periods, Defendants failed to maintain accurate and sufficient time records or provide accurate records to employees.

COUNT I: Fair Labor Standards Act - Overtime

42. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and all Collective Action Members, repeats, realleges, and incorporates by reference the foregoing allegations as if set forth fully and again herein.

43. At all relevant times, Defendants employed Plaintiff and each of the Collective Action Members within the meaning of the FLSA.

44. Defendants had a policy and practice of refusing to pay overtime compensation to their employees for some of the hours they worked in excess of forty hours per workweek.

45. As a result of Defendants' willful failure to compensate their employees, including Plaintiff and the Collective Action Members, at a rate at least one-and-one-half times the regular rate of pay for some of their work performed in excess of forty hours per workweek, Defendants have violated, and continue to violate, the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. §§ 201 et seq., including 29 U.S.C. §§ 207(a)(1) and 215(a).

46. The foregoing conduct, as alleged, constituted a willful violation of the FLSA within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. § 255(a), and lacked a good faith basis within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. § 260.

47. Due to Defendants' FLSA violations, Plaintiff and the Collective Action Members are entitled to recover from Defendants their unpaid overtime compensation, an additional equal amount as liquidated damages, interest, reasonable attorneys' fees, and costs and disbursements of this action, pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

Defendants willfully violated Plaintiff's rights by failing to pay him overtime compensation at rates at least one-and-one-half times his regular rate of pay for some of the hours worked in excess of forty hours per workweek in violation of the New York Labor Law §§ 650 et seq. and its supporting regulations in 12 N.Y.C.R.R. § 146.

56. Defendants' failure to pay overtime was willful, and lacked a good faith basis, within the meaning of New York Labor Law § 198, § 663 and supporting regulations.

57. Due to Defendants' New York Labor Law violations, Plaintiff is entitled to recover from Defendants his unpaid overtime compensation, liquidated damages, interest, reasonable attorneys' fees, and costs and disbursements of the action, pursuant to New York Labor Law § 198, and § 663(1).

COUNT IV: New York Labor Law – Spread of Hours

62. Due to Defendants' New York Labor Law violations, Plaintiff is entitled to recover from Defendants his unpaid compensation, liquidated damages, interest, reasonable attorneys' fees, and costs and disbursements of the action, pursuant to New York Labor Law § 198, and § 663(1).
